[2] The Employer has provided written undertakings (Undertakings). A copy of the Undertakings is attached in Annexure A to this decision. I am satisfied that the effect of accepting the Undertakings is not likely to:

- (a) cause financial detriment to any employee covered by the Agreement; or [4] Pursuant to subsection 190(3) of the Act, I accept the Undertakings. The Undertakings are taken to be a term of the Agreement.

[5] Subject to the Undertakings, I am satisfied that each of the requirements of sections 186, 187, 188 and 190 as are relevant to this application for approval have been met.

5. Faith Basis of the School

5.1 Statement of Faith

- (a) It is an inherent genuine occupational requirement and essential condition of employment and continuing employment that an employee possesses and maintains a firm personal belief consistent with the Statement of Faith of the School, together with an active commitment to and involvement with a Christian church holding a doctrinal position consistent with the Statement of Faith. Accordingly, all employees are expected by the School to possess and maintain throughout the term of this Agreement a firm personal belief consistent with the Statement of Faith of the School, together with an active commitment to and involvement with a Christian church holding a doctrinal position consistent with the Statement of Faith. At the least, such an active commitment requires regular and frequent attendance at the Church's worship services.
- (b) Should an employee cease to have a firm personal belief consistent with the Statement of Faith or cease to maintain an active commitment to and involvement with an appropriate Christian church the employee shall inform the School.
- (c) If this situation continues after counselling and an opportunity for restoration, the school may terminate the employee's employment in accordance with the normal requirements relating to termination.

5.2 Lifestyle and Values

The parties acknowledge that:

- (a) The School bases its teachings and beliefs on the Bible, both the Old and New Testaments which the School regards as the inspired and inerrant Word of God.
- (b) These teachings are expounded in many of the School's public and internal documents, including the Statement of Faith.
- (c) These documents reflect the School's understanding of the lifestyle and values which all staff members of the School regardless of their role are required to respect and maintain at all times and are to be understood as source documents, defining the School's doctrines, tenets, beliefs and teachings.
- (d) Without limiting the school's constitution, Statement of Faith and related documents, which may provide more specific information, the School is an institution conducted in accordance with the doctrines, tenets, beliefs or teachings of the protestant stream of the Christian religion and the provisions in this clause are included in good faith to avoid injury to the religious susceptibilities of adherents of the protestant stream of the Christian faith.
- (e) It is an inherent genuine occupational requirement and essential condition of employment and continuing employment that all staff members of the School are required to be seen to conduct themselves at all times in a manner consistent with these teachings and beliefs and in accordance with the Christian ethos of the School, and any school policy that may be developed from time to time, thus providing a specifically Christian role model and example to all students and families associated with the School.
- (f) It is an inherent, genuine occupational requirement and essential condition of employment and continuing employment that all staff members of the School must not act in a way that they know, or ought reasonably to know, is contrary to the religious beliefs and values of the School. Nothing in their deliberate conduct shall be incompatible with the intrinsic character of their position.

- (g) Acting contrary to the lifestyle and values requirements set out in this clause is likely to cause injury to the religious susceptibilities of members of the School community who adhere to the School's doctrines, tenets, beliefs and teachings.
- (h) If an employee acts contrary to the lifestyle and values requirements set out in this clause the matter will be dealt with in accordance with the normal school procedures in relation to conduct and performance management.
- (i) If a dispute arises in connection with this clause it shall be dealt with in accordance with clause 10 – Dispute Resolution.

6. Access to the Agreement and the National Employment Standards

The School will take steps to make available copies of this Agreement and the NES to all employees to whom they apply.

7. The National Employment Standards and this Agreement

This Agreement does not exclude the NES. The NES and this Agreement contain the minimum conditions of employment for employees covered by this Agreement. If there is an inconsistency between a provision of this Agreement and the NES, and the NES is more beneficial in a particular aspect, then the NES provision will apply to the extent of the inconsistency.

8. Agreement flexibility

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, a school and an individual employee may agree to vary the application of certain terms of this Agreement to meet the genuine needs of the employer and the employee as provided in Schedule C. However, for such an agreement to take effect, the agreement must result in the employee being better off overall than would have been the case if no flexibility agreement was entered into between the employee and the school. A copy of the signed agreement will be provided to each party within fourteen days of the agreement being signed.

Part 2—Consultation and Dispute Resolution

9. Consultation regarding major workplace change and changes to regular rosters and ordinary hours of work

A school shall consult in connection with the introduction of major change likely to have significant effects on employees and changes to regular rosters and ordinary hours of work. This requirement is dealt with in Schedule D.

10. Dispute resolution

In the event of a dispute about a matter under this Agreement, or a dispute in relation to the NES, the parties will follow the disputes procedure in Schedule E.

11. Union Representatives

In order to promote the relationship between the School and all employees of the School (including members of the Union and other employees) bound by this Agreement;

- (a) The School shall permit the union representative in the School, if any, (not being an official of the Union) to post union notices relating to the holding of meetings in relation to employment matters on a common room noticeboard.
- (b) Where an employee requests the union representative at the School (not being an official of the Union) to represent them in relation to a matter concerning their employment under this Agreement, the union representative shall be permitted in working hours [other than timetabled teaching time if involved in duties in the classroom] to hold discussions with a representative of the School. Such discussions shall take place at a time and place convenient to both parties.
- (c) Meetings of union members who are employed at the School may be held on the School premises at times within the School's hours of business but when employees are on a break and at places reasonably convenient to both union members and the Principal and otherwise in accordance with the Act. Provided also that the union representative gives prior notice to the Principal of the members' intention to meet.

Part 3—Types of Employment and Termination of Employment

12. Types of employment

12.1 Types (categories) of employment

Employees under this Agreement will be employed in one of the following categories:

- (a) full-time employment on an ongoing (indefinite) basis;
- (b) part-time employment on an ongoing (indefinite) basis; or
- (c) casual employment; or
- (d) temporary employment, being employment, for a specified maximum term or for a specified task.

For the avoidance of doubt, temporary employment may be full-time or part-time.

12.2 Letter of Appointment

On appointment, the School shall provide full-time and part-time employees with a letter of appointment setting out the following:

- (a) the classification and rate of pay of the employee and whether this reflects a classification or salary higher than that required by this Agreement;

- (b) the number of hours to be worked each week and the number of weeks to be worked throughout the year;
- (c) a statement in relation to superannuation entitlements;
- (d) whether the rate of pay is payable during term time only or throughout the year; and
- (e) whether the employee may be required to attend overnight camps.

If there is a requirement to work during non-term weeks, the number of such days to be worked shall be clearly specified.

12.3 Full-time employment

A full-time employee is an employee engaged to work 38 hours per week or an average of 38 hours per week pursuant to clause 26—Ordinary hours of work.

12.4 Part-time employment

- (a) A part-time employee is an employee who is engaged to work less than 38 ordinary hours per week or an average of less than 38 hours per week and who has reasonably predictable hours of work.
- (b) A part-time employee will be paid an hourly rate of 1/38th of the weekly rate for the employee's classification.
- (c) A part-time employee's Agreement entitlements will be calculated on a pro rata basis.
- (d) At the time of engagement, the employer and the part-time employee will agree in writing on a regular pattern of work, specifying the number of hours worked each day, the days of the week the employee will work, the number of weeks of the school year the employee will work and starting and finishing times each day.
- (e) The terms of the agreement in sub-clause 12.4(d) may be varied, on a temporary or ongoing basis, by agreement between the employer and an employee. Any such variation will be recorded in writing.

12.5 Casual employment

- (a) A casual employee is paid by the day or hour.
- (b) A casual employee will be paid an hourly rate of 1/38th of the weekly rate for the employee's classification, plus 25%. Amongst other things, this loading includes compensation for any entitlements to annual holidays or other paid leave to which a full-time or part-time employee is or may be entitled in accordance with the NES or any other legislative instrument.
- (c) A casual employee will be engaged and paid for a minimum of two hours for each engagement. Except that a preschool/childcare services employee working in an out of school hours care program may satisfy the two hour minimum by working one hour before school and one hour after school on the same day.
- (d) A casual employee must be paid at the termination of each engagement, or fortnightly or monthly in accordance with usual payment methods for full-time employees.

12.6 Right to request casual conversion

The NES provides rights and obligations in relation to the conversion of a regular casual employee to full-time or part-time employment.

12.7 Temporary Employment

- (a) A temporary employee is an employee employed to work full-time or part-time for a specified maximum period of time which is not normally to exceed 12 months or to undertake a specific project. An employee may be employed as a temporary employee in the following circumstances:
 - (i) where an employee is employed to replace an employee on leave or secondment;
 - (ii) where the School's staffing is to be reduced in the following year or years overall or in a department. This may include but is not limited to circumstances such as declining enrolments or school amalgamations;
 - (iii) where an employee is employed on a specific programme not funded by the School; or
 - (iv) where an employee is engaged in connection with the carrying out of a specific project or task, or
 - (v) in a new position that is being trialled, provided that at the end of the trial period either the employment ends or the employee is employed in an ongoing position on an indefinite basis.
- (b) Applicants must be advised in writing prior to accepting a position that it is temporary, the expected length of the appointment and the reason why it is temporary.
- (c) The employment of a temporary employee may be ended before the expected length of appointment has passed or the task complete in accordance with clause 14. If this occurs the School is not obliged to pay the employee until the expected end date of the employment.

12.8 Flexible Working Arrangements

- (a) An employee may request flexible working arrangements in accordance with s65 of the Act. A school may only refuse such a request on reasonable business grounds.
- (b) Responding to the request

Before responding to a request made under s65, the employer must discuss the request with the employee and genuinely try to reach agreement on a change in working arrangements that will reasonably accommodate the employee's circumstances having regard to:

 - (i) the needs of the employee arising from their circumstances;
 - (ii) the consequences for the employee if changes in working arrangements are not made; and
 - (iii) any reasonable business grounds for refusing the request.

Note 1: The employer must give the employee a written response to an employee's s65 request within 21 days, stating whether the employer grants or refuses the request (s65(4)).

Note 2: If the employer refuses the request, the written response must include details of the reasons for the refusal (s65(6)).

- (c) What the written response must include if the employer refuses the request
 - (i) The written response under s65(4) must include details of the reasons for the refusal, including the business ground or grounds for the refusal and how the ground or grounds apply.
 - (ii) If the employer and employee could not agree on a change in working arrangements, the written response under s65(4) must:
 - 1. state whether or not there are any changes in working arrangements that the employer can offer the employee so as to better accommodate the employee's circumstances; and
 - 2. if the employer can offer the employee such changes in working arrangements, set out those changes in working arrangements.
- (d) What the written response must include if a different change in working arrangements is agreed

If the employer and the employee reached an agreement on a change in working arrangements that differs from that initially requested by the employee, the employer must provide the employee with a written response to their request setting out the agreed change(s) in working arrangements.
- (e) Dispute resolution

Disputes about whether the employer has discussed the request with the employee and responded to the request in the way required by this clause, can be dealt with under clause 10 and Schedule E - Dispute resolution.

13. Leave without pay during non-term weeks

13.1 Arrangements

An employee may be required to take leave without pay during all or part of the non-term weeks, provided that:

- (a) the employee's contract of employment specifies the arrangement in writing;
- (b) all such periods count as service for the purpose of calculating accrued leave entitlements, the period of service for progression, the period of service for redundancy purposes and do not break continuity of service;
- (c) where an employee's pay is not averaged in accordance with sub-clause 13.2 below, any public holidays falling within such period of leave without pay shall be paid at the ordinary rate if they fall on a day on which the employee ordinarily works. Where an employee's pay is averaged in accordance with sub-clause 13.2 below, payment for public holidays falling within such period of leave is included in the averaged rate of pay and no additional payment is required

- (d) if the employee's contract of employment does not specify a requirement to work during non-term weeks and appropriate work is available for the employee during any such period, or the contract does specify such a requirement and work is available in addition to the specified requirement, the employee may be offered such work (whether on a full-time, part-time or casual basis). The employee may refuse an offer of employment without prejudice to their normal employment relationship. Appropriate work will mean such work as is available that is capable of being performed by the employee. Remuneration for such work will be at the rate of pay applicable to the work being performed, calculated at the unaveraged rate of pay. Such payment will be in addition to any other payment due to the employee for the period. Alternatively, the employee may request in writing that the work be treated as make up time in accordance with clause 31.3 and an agreement to this effect will be kept with pay records.
- (e) if the employee's contract of employment specifies a requirement to work during one or more non-term weeks between identified term time, but does not specifically designate the particular weeks and/or days required to be worked during such non-term weeks, the employer and the employee shall agree as early as practicable in a school calendar year on the weeks and/or days to be worked. Failing agreement, the employee shall be given at least four term weeks notice of the weeks and/or days required to be worked prior to the commencement of the particular non-term weeks. Provided that any such requirement that the employee work shall not be unreasonable given the employee's personal circumstances and the notice given. The employee may be required to work during the ordinary hours and days which the person normally works, provided that the employee may agree to work on different days or for different hours or with a lesser period of notice. The employee may not be required to work during a non-term period between particular terms unless the contract of employment specifies the relevant terms.
- (f) An employer may elect to pay an employee only for the time worked (and therefore not during non-term weeks) or by equal salary instalments throughout the year as provided by sub-clause 13.2.
- (g) Where a person employed as at the date of making this Agreement is not employed on a contract which allows for leave without pay during non-term weeks that employee will not be required to take such leave or have their contract of employment changed merely as a result of this Agreement coming into operation. For the avoidance of doubt, this clause does not prohibit the re-negotiation of existing arrangements to allow for such leave.

13.2 Calculating salary instalments for an employee on leave without pay during non-term weeks

- (a) When the School elects to average the payment of salary or wages of an employee, the rates will be paid in equal instalments throughout the year including annual leave (this is not inclusive of the annual leave loading) in accordance with this sub-clause 13.2.
- (b) Whilst this Agreement is in operation, the following formula shall be used to determine the appropriate full-time weekly rate for a position:

$$\text{Weekly Rate} = \frac{N + 11}{240} \times \frac{\text{Annual rate of salary}}{52.14}$$

Where:

N = number of days (excluding public holidays) a full-time employee in the position held by the employee would be required to work each year.

- (c) Part time averaged rates shall be calculated by determining the appropriate full-time weekly rate then dividing by 38.
- (d) The rate of pay of an employee determined by this sub-clause 13.2, shall be the appropriate rate for all purposes, including long service leave and other paid leave, except for the purpose of calculating casual rates or any allowance, overtime or penalty for an employee, in which case the casual rates, allowance, overtime or penalty will be calculated on the ordinary hourly rate applicable to the employee's classification.
- (e) Where an employee is paid in accordance with this sub-clause 13.2 and the employee ceases employment with the School and the total amount received by the employee during that year since the School Service Date including payment for accrued and untaken annual leave is less than such amount the employee would have earned if their salary had not been averaged including accrued and untaken annual leave, then the employee shall be paid the difference between the averaged amount paid and such higher amount not later than the next School Service Date or on termination of the employee's employment, whichever occurs first.

Note: The averaging formula in this sub-clause 13.2 assumes that an employee is in employment at the commencement of a school year. Employees who commence employment after the first week of a school year should be paid an unaveraged rate of pay until the following year.

14. Termination of employment and suspension

14.1 Notice of termination by the school

Notice of termination is provided for in the NES. For the avoidance of doubt the employment of any full-time or part-time employee may be terminated by the employer giving notice as set out in the NES or by the payment of the equivalent wages in lieu of notice or by giving part notice and part payment in lieu of notice.

The employment of a casual employee working a block of more than five days may be terminated by one day's notice.

NOTE: The NES currently provides for notice on termination as follows:

	Notice period if employee is 45 years of age or younger	Notice period if employee is over 45 years of age
Not more than 1 year	1 week	1 week
More than 1 year, but not more than 2 years	2 weeks	2 weeks

More than 2 years, but not more than 3 years	2 weeks	3 weeks
More than 3 years, but not more than 5 years	3 weeks	4 weeks
More than 5 years	4 weeks	5 weeks

14.2 Notice of termination by an employee

The notice of termination required to be given by an employee is the same as that required of an employer except that there is no requirement on the employee to give additional notice based on the age of the employee concerned. If an employee, who is at least 18 years old, fails to give the required notice, the amount of one week's wages becomes a debt due to the employer. With the agreement of the employee, the employer may withhold from any monies due to the employee on termination under this Agreement or the NES. Any outstanding balance becomes a debt due. If the employer has agreed to a shorter period of notice than that required by this sub-clause 14.2, then no deduction may be made.

14.3 Job search entitlement

Where an employer has given notice of termination to an employee, an employee must be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay for the purpose of seeking other employment. The time off is to be taken at times that are convenient to the employee after consultation with the employer.

15.3 Employee leaving during notice period

An employee given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy may terminate their employment during the period of notice. The employee is entitled to receive the benefits and payments they would have received under this clause had they remained in employment until the expiry of the notice, but is not entitled to payment instead of notice.

15.4 Job search entitlement

- (a) An employee given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy must be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay during each week of notice for the purpose of seeking other employment to a maximum of five days.
- (b) If the employee has been allowed paid leave for more than one day during the notice period for the purpose of seeking other employment, the employee must, at the request of the employer, produce proof of attendance at an interview or they will not be entitled to payment for the time absent. - (b) The rest break shall not be taken at the beginning or end of a shift, nor immediately before or after a meal break.
- (c) This clause does not apply to an employee working less than 3 hours.

28.3 Access to facilities

Employees shall be supplied with facilities for the heating of water and food and a suitable place protected from the weather to partake of their meals. Employees shall leave such place in a thoroughly clean condition.

29. Shiftwork

29.1 Ordinary hours for shiftwork

The ordinary hours for shiftwork will:

- (a) be worked continuously each shift (except for broken shifts and meal breaks);
- (b) not exceed 10 hours, inclusive of a meal break in any single shift; and
- (c) be rostered in accordance with sub-clause 29.4.

29.2 Definitions

The following shift definitions apply:

- (a) day shift is a shift which commences and ceases wholly within the spread of ordinary hours identified in sub-clause 26.3;
- (b) afternoon shift is a shift which is not a day shift and which finishes after the ordinary hours identified in sub-clause 26.3; and at or before midnight;
- (c) night shift is a shift which is not a day shift and which finishes after midnight and at or before 6.00 am.

29.3 Broken shifts

- (a) An employee may be rostered to work ordinary hours in a broken shift, that is a rostered shift in two periods of duty, exclusive of breaks, per day, with a minimum payment (other than for a casual) of two hours for each period of duty.
- (b) An employee, other than a casual, required to work a broken shift will be paid at the ordinary time rate plus a penalty of 15% of the (unaveraged) ordinary time rate.
- (c) The maximum spread between the start of the first period of duty and cease of the second period of duty for a broken shift is 12 hours. Any hours in excess of this 12 hour spread will be paid for as overtime.
- (d) Where an employee, not required by their employer to work a broken shift, requests in writing a change in their rostered hours such that the requested hours constitute a broken shift no penalty shall apply. Such request shall be confirmed at the commencement of each calendar year by the employee and kept with pay records - if no such confirmation is provided, the penalty shall be payable. In no case shall an offer of employment or continued employment be conditional on the making of such request by the employee.

29.4 Rostering

- (a) For employees working to a roster, a roster showing normal starting and finishing times and the name of each employee will be prepared by the employer and will be displayed in a place conveniently accessible to the employees at least seven days before the commencement of the roster period.
- (b) An employee may be rostered to work on a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday and will be paid the appropriate penalty in accordance with clause 30—Penalty rates.
- (c) A roster may be altered by mutual consent at any time or by amendment of the roster by the employer on seven days' notice. Changes to regular rosters are subject to consultation in accordance with Schedule D – Consultation.
- (d) Notwithstanding sub-clause 29.4(c) a roster may be altered at any time to enable the functions of the employer to be carried out where another employee is absent from work due to illness or in an emergency. In such circumstances, unless agreed between the employer and the employee, an employee must be given 48 hours' notice of a change to a rostered shift. If 48 hours' notice is not provided, the employee will be entitled to a penalty of 50% of the ordinary time rate instead of any other penalty that may apply.
- (e) Where such alteration requires an employee to work on a day which would otherwise have been the employee's day off, the day off instead will be arranged by mutual consent.

30. Penalty rates

30.1 Shiftwork

- (a) Where an employee is required by the employer to work shiftwork the following penalty rates will apply:
 - (i) Afternoon shift and night shift will attract a penalty rate of 15% of the ordinary time rate.
 - (ii) A permanent night shift will attract a penalty rate of 30% of the ordinary time rate

30.2 Saturday and Sunday work

- (a) An employee other than an employee covered by sub-clause 30.2(b) required to work ordinary time on a Saturday or Sunday will be paid the ordinary time rate of pay plus a penalty of:
 - (i) for ordinary hours worked on a Saturday, 50% of the ordinary time rate; and
 - (ii) for ordinary hours worked on a Sunday, 100% of the ordinary time rate.
- (b) Except that a school operational services employee in the cooking/catering group, rostered to work ordinary hours on a Saturday will be paid the ordinary time rate of pay plus a penalty of 25% of the ordinary time rate and if rostered to work on a Sunday will be paid the ordinary time rate of pay plus a penalty of 75% of the ordinary time rate.

- 30.3 The penalty rates within this clause and in clause 31—Overtime are not cumulative. Where an employee is entitled to more than one penalty or overtime rate, the employee will be entitled to the highest single penalty rate.

31. Overtime

31.1 Overtime rates

- (a) Subject to sub-clause 31.1(d), subclause 26.5 and subclause 31.2 an employee will be paid overtime for all authorised work performed outside of or in excess of the ordinary or rostered hours as follows:

Time worked	Overtime rate
Monday–Friday	150% of the ordinary hourly rate of pay for the first 3 hours and 200% of the ordinary hourly rate of pay after that
Saturday	150% of the ordinary hourly rate of pay for the first 3 hours and 200% of the ordinary hourly rate of pay after that
Sunday	200% of the ordinary hourly rate of pay
Public holidays	250% of the ordinary hourly rate of pay

- (b) Except that a nursing services employee rostered to work overtime on a Saturday or Sunday will be paid the ordinary time rate of pay plus a penalty of 50% of the ordinary time rate for all time worked.
- (c) Overtime will be calculated daily.
- (d) Employees classified and paid at levels 7 and 8 on the core scale or at Level 8 School Operational Services, shall not be entitled to the benefits of clause 26 Ordinary hours of work, and this clause 31 for hours which do not constitute more than 15% of the employee's ordinary weekly hours of work, averaged over a period of four weeks. The salaries payable at these levels are inclusive of compensation for any overtime payment to which the employee would otherwise be entitled, for hours up to the 15% additional hours, averaged over four weeks.
- (e) An employee may refuse to work additional hours or overtime in circumstances where the working of such additional hours or overtime would result in the employee working hours which are unreasonable.
- (f) In determining whether additional hours are reasonable or unreasonable the following will be taken into account:
- (i) any risk to employee health and safety;
 - (ii) the employee's personal circumstances, including any family and carer's responsibilities;
 - (iii) the needs of the employer;
 - (iv) whether the employee is entitled to receive overtime payments, penalty rates or other compensation for, or a level of remuneration that reflects an expectation of working additional hours;

- (v) the notice (if any) given by the employer to work the additional hours;
- (vi) the notice (if any) given by the employee of his or her intention to refuse to work the additional hours;
- (vii) the usual patterns of work in school education;
- (viii) the nature of the employee's role and their level of responsibility;
- (ix) whether the additional hours are in accordance with the averaging terms in this Agreement; and
- (x) any other relevant matter.

31.2 Time off instead of overtime payment

- (a) An employee and an employer may agree that the employee will be provided with time off instead of being paid for a particular amount of overtime required by the employer to be worked by the employee. Any such agreement shall be recorded in writing and state: that the employer and employee agree that the employee will be provided with time off instead of being paid for the overtime; the number of overtime hours to which it applies; and when those hours were worked, and shall be retained as an employee record.
- (b) Overtime taken as time off during ordinary time hours must be taken at the ordinary time rate, that is, an hour for each hour worked.
- (c) Time off must be taken:
 - (i) within the period of 6 months after the overtime is worked; and
 - (ii) at a time or times within that period of 6 months agreed by the employer and employee.
- (d) Where an employee and an employer have agreed to time off instead of an overtime payment under sub-clause 31.2 (a), and such time has not been taken within the period of 6 months after the overtime is worked, an employer must pay the employee for the overtime, in the next pay period following those 6 months, at the overtime rate applicable to the overtime when worked.
- (e) An employee not covered by sub-clause 31.2 (d), who works overtime and after working the overtime agrees to take time off instead of overtime, under this sub-clause 31.2, may request at any time to be paid for overtime covered by such an agreement, but not taken as time off. If the employee requests, the employer must pay the employee for the overtime, in the next pay period following the request, at the overtime rate applicable to the overtime when worked. For the avoidance of doubt, this does not apply to an agreement made by an employee, with an employer, to take time off instead of receiving payment for overtime, in conjunction with the employee agreeing to work the overtime.
- (f) If, on the termination of an employee's employment, time off for overtime worked by the employee to which this sub-clause 31.2 applies has not been taken, the employer must pay the employee for the overtime worked at the overtime rate applicable to the overtime when worked.
- (g) An employee may, with the consent of the employer, take time off for overtime worked, in accordance with this sub-clause 31.2, for the purposes of carer's leave.

31.3 Make-up time

An employee may elect, with the consent of the employer, to work make-up time under which the employee takes time off during ordinary hours, and works those hours at a later time, during the spread of ordinary hours provided in the Agreement.

Part 6—Leave and Public Holidays

32. Annual leave

32.1 Annual leave is provided for in the NES. This clause supplements the NES provisions. (Note: The NES provides for four weeks annual leave for each 12 months of service; or five weeks annual leave for some shift workers for each 12 months of service)

32.2 Annual leave shall be given and taken during the non-term weeks following the end of term four in each school year unless otherwise agreed in writing.

32.3 Where, in accordance with the requirements of the Act, annual leave is to be recredited this shall occur and the leave be deemed to be taken during the next available non-term weeks other than in the case of an employee who is not required to work during the relevant non-term period and is in receipt of averaged pay for that period pursuant to clause 13.2.

32.4 Annual leave loading

(a) During a period of annual leave, an employee will receive a loading calculated on the rate of wage prescribed in clause 17—Minimum wages/salary of this Agreement. Annual leave loading is payable on leave accrued on the following bases:

- (i) employees who would have worked on day work only had they not been on leave—17.5% of their ordinary rate of pay.
- (ii) employees who would have worked on shiftwork had they not been on leave—17.5% of their ordinary rate of pay or the applicable shift loading, whichever is the greater.

(b) Except that an employer may, at its election, pay:

- (i) annual leave loading to the employee with each salary payment throughout the school year by increasing the annual rate of pay as at the commencement of the school year, or as subsequently varied, by 1.3426%. Where an employer elects to pay annual leave loading with each salary payment throughout the school year, the employer must advise the employee in writing; or
- (ii) annual leave loading in respect of the school year to the employee with the first salary payment in December of that school year at the rate of pay applicable on 1 December of that school year.

32.5 Paid leave in advance of accrued entitlement

(a) An employer may agree to allow an employee, whose pay is not averaged pursuant to sub-clause 13.2 of this Agreement, to take annual leave either wholly or partly in advance before the employee has accrued an entitlement to the leave.

(b) Such an agreement shall be in writing and:

- (i) state the amount of leave to be taken in advance and the date on which leave is to commence; and
- (ii) be signed by the employer and employee and, if the employee is under 18 years of age, by the employee's parent or guardian.

Note: An example of the type of agreement required by this sub-clause 32.5 is set out at Schedule G.1 - Agreement to Take Annual Leave in Advance. There is no requirement to use the form of agreement set out at Schedule G.1.

- (c) The employer shall keep a copy of any agreement under this sub-clause 32.5 (c) as an employee record.
- (d) Where paid leave has been granted to an employee in excess of the employee's accrued entitlement, and the employee subsequently leaves or is discharged from the service of the employer before completing the required amount of service to account for some or all of the leave provided in advance, with the authorisation of the employee, the employer may deduct from any remuneration payable to the employee upon termination of the employment an amount equal to the amount that was paid to the employee in respect of any part of the period of annual leave taken in advance to which an entitlement has not been accrued.

32.6 Annual Leave Loading on Termination

Where the employment of an employee ceases for any reason, and at the time of the termination the employee has not been given and has not taken annual leave to which the employee became entitled, the employee shall be paid a loading calculated in accordance with sub-clause 32.4, for the period not taken.

32.7 Limited Cashing out of Annual Leave

- (a) This sub-clause 32.7 does not apply to an employee whose pay is averaged pursuant to subclause 13.2.
- (b) Paid annual leave must not be cashed out except in accordance with an agreement under this sub-clause 32.7.
- (c) A maximum of 2 weeks accrued, paid annual leave may be cashed out by an employee, whose pay is not averaged pursuant to sub-clause 13.2 of this Agreement, with the agreement of their employer, in a 12 month period.
- (d) Any agreement to the cashing out of a particular amount of accrued paid annual leave by the employee must be in writing and must not result in the employee's remaining accrued entitlement to paid annual leave being less than 4 weeks.
- (e) Any such agreement must state:
 - (i) the amount of leave to be cashed out and the payment to be made to the employee for it; and
 - (ii) the date by which the payment is to be made.

- (f) The agreement must be signed by the employer and employee and, if the employee is under 18 years of age, by the employee's parent or guardian.
- (g) The payment must not be less than the amount that would have been payable had the employee taken the leave at the time the payment is made, including annual leave loading.
- (h) The employer must keep a copy of any agreement under this sub-clause 32.7 as an employee record.
- (i) If an employee cashes out an amount of annual leave under this sub-clause, the employee will no longer be entitled to the annual leave that they have cashed out.

Note: An example of the type of agreement required by this sub-clause 32.7 is set out at Schedule G.2 – Cashing Out Annual Leave. There is no requirement to use the form of agreement set out at Schedule G.2.

32.8 Excessive Annual Leave Accruals

- (a) An employee has an excessive leave accrual if the employee has accrued more than 8 weeks paid annual leave.
- (b) Where an employee has an excessive leave accrual the employer and/or employee may seek to confer with the other to seek to genuinely reach agreement regarding the reduction or elimination of the excessive leave accrual.
- (c) Where an employer or employee have genuinely sought but been unable to reach agreement with the other regarding the reduction or elimination of the excessive leave accrual the employer or the employee, as the case may be, may direct or require the other to take or grant annual leave as set out in Schedule G.3 – Direction by Employer to Take Annual Leave where Excessive Annual Leave Accrual and Schedule G.4 - Request by Employee for Leave where Excessive Annual Leave Accrual.

33. Personal/carer's leave and compassionate leave

Personal Leave and compassionate leave are provided for in the NES. This clause of the Agreement provides agreement specific details and supplements the NES which deals with personal/carer's leave.

33.1 Base Personal Leave

(a) Entitlement

An employee, with the exception of a casual employee, shall be entitled to ten (10) days paid Base Personal Leave per annum, or the applicable pro-rata thereof. Such entitlements shall be available in full from the commencement of each year of service.

(b) Access to Base Personal Leave

An employee may take paid Base Personal Leave if the leave is taken:

For the purposes of this clause an 'unexpected personal emergency' in paragraph 33.1 (b)(i) is a circumstance that is unplanned, due to circumstances beyond the employee's control and is of an urgent and serious nature that requires the urgent attendance of the employee. The urgent circumstance must be of such a nature that it cannot be arranged outside of work time.

An 'unexpected personal emergency' in paragraph 33.1 (b)(ii) is a circumstance that is unplanned, due to circumstances beyond the employee's immediate family or household member's control and is of an urgent and serious nature that requires the urgent attention of the employee to attend and provide care or support. The urgent circumstance must be of such a nature that it cannot be arranged outside of work time.

- (iii) The entitlement to use Base Personal Leave in accordance with paragraph 33.1(b) (ii) (A) and (B) is subject to:
 - (A) the employee being responsible for the care of the person concerned; and
 - (B) the person concerned being a member of the employee's immediate family or household as defined in the Act.

[Note: the Act defines "immediate family" (in s12) to mean a spouse, de facto partner, child, parent, grandparent, grandchild or sibling of the employee or child, parent, grandparent, grandchild or sibling of a spouse or de facto partner of the employee. "Household" is not defined.]

(c) Base Personal Leave Accumulation

Untaken Base Personal Leave will accumulate from year to year as follows:

- (i) Untaken Base Personal Leave entitlements from the commencement of this Agreement shall accumulate from year to year with no maximum accumulation.

- (ii) For the purpose of this clause, Personal Leave accumulates from year to year only in respect of consecutive years of employment with the same employer and not otherwise.

33.2 Additional Personal Leave

(a) Entitlement

An employee, with the exception of a casual employee, shall be entitled to five (5) days paid Additional Personal Leave, or the applicable pro-rata thereof. Such entitlements shall be available progressively in each year of service, PROVIDED THAT an employee in their first year of service with a school may request leave in advance up to the total entitlement of leave for that year. Such a request may not be unreasonably refused by the school.

(b) Access to Additional Personal Leave

An employee may take paid Additional Personal Leave if the leave is taken:

- (i) because the employee is not fit or able to work due to a personal illness, or personal injury or unexpected personal emergency, having the same meaning as sub-clause 33.1 (b)(i), or domestic violence affecting the employee and all Base Personal Leave entitlements (both current year and accumulated) are extinguished; or
- (ii) to provide care or support to a member of the employee's immediate family, or household member, in the circumstances outlined in sub-clause 33.1 (b)(ii) when Personal Leave entitlements (both current year and accumulated) are extinguished, provided that the total leave taken under this sub-clause and sub-clause 33.1 (b)(ii) shall not exceed ten (10) days in any year of service.
- (iii) for up to one day in any one year for family purposes, such as moving house or other domestic emergency, subject to the operational needs of the School; or

(c) Additional Personal Leave Accumulation

Untaken Additional Personal Leave will accumulate from year to year as follows:

- (i) Untaken Additional Personal Leave entitlements from the commencement of this Agreement shall accumulate from year to year with a maximum accumulation of twenty-five (25) days leave, in addition to the entitlement in the current year.
- (ii) Additional Personal Leave which accrues to an employee in the employee's current year of service pursuant to sub-clause 33.2 (a) will be taken prior to the taking of any Additional Personal Leave which the employee has accumulated in accordance with this clause.

- (iii) For the purpose of this clause, Additional Personal Leave accumulates from year to year only in respect of consecutive years of employment with the same employer and not otherwise.

33.3 Accumulated entitlements for existing employees at the commencement of this Agreement
Untaken Base Personal Leave and Additional Personal Leave at the date of commencement of this Agreement will accumulate from year to year as follows:

- (a) Base Personal Leave entitlements shall accumulate indefinitely as untaken Base Personal Leave.
- (b) Additional Personal Leave entitlements, shall be available as untaken Additional Personal Leave entitlements, provided that such leave shall be included in the calculation of the maximum accumulation of twenty-five (25) days pursuant to sub-clause 33.2 (c) (irrespective of the year in which it accrued).

For the avoidance of doubt, no personal leave or sick leave, however named, accumulated prior to the commencement of this Agreement will accumulate or carry forward except as provided for in this sub-clause 33.3.

33.4 Personal leave Evidentiary Matters

- (a) In accordance with the NES an employee must provide the School, if requested, with evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person that they are entitled to take Personal Leave. Without limiting this obligation, it is agreed that the following evidence may be required, if requested by the School, from an employee in order to be entitled to personal leave:
 - (i) for absences of two consecutive days or more because of a personal illness or injury - the production, other than in respect of the first three days absence due to illness or injury in any year, of a medical certificate addressed to the School, or, if the School requires, to the School Medical Officer.
 - (ii) for absences of less than two consecutive days because of a personal illness or injury – the notice of the absence provided by the employee, subject to sub-clause (d) below.
 - (iii) for absences because of an unexpected personal emergency or domestic violence – the provision of a statutory declaration, outlining the nature of the unexpected personal emergency, or the fact of domestic violence, and that such circumstance prevented attendance at work.
 - (iv) for absences to provide care or support because of a personal illness or injury – production of a medical certificate or statutory declaration, of the illness or injury of the person concerned and that the illness or injury is such as to require care or support by the employee. Evidence may also be required that the person requiring care or support is a member of the employee's immediate family or household.

- (v) for absences to provide care or support because of a personal emergency or domestic violence - the provision of a statutory declaration, outlining the nature of the unexpected personal emergency, or the fact of domestic violence, and that such circumstance resulted in the person concerned requiring care or support by the employee. Evidence may also be required that the person requiring care or support is a member of the employee's immediate family or household.
- (b) Nothing in sub-clause (a) precludes:
 - (i) a School from not requiring evidence in a particular circumstance, or as a matter of school policy, or
 - (ii) an employee from providing other documentary evidence reasonably acceptable to the School.
- (c) A medical certificate required under this clause may be provided by a person registered, or licensed, as a health practitioner under a law of a State or Territory that provides for the registration or licensing of health practitioners, provided the illness or injury is within the area of expertise of the practitioner.
- (d) Where an employee has taken frequent single days of personal leave, or taken extended personal leave such that the School requires additional information in relation to the employee's circumstances, then the School may take action in accordance with this subclause.
 - (i) The School may arrange a meeting in order to clarify the position with the employee. The invitation to the employee to attend the meeting shall be in writing (signed by the Principal or the Principal's delegate) with sufficient notice for the employee to be reasonably able to attend the meeting. The invitation shall also refer to the provisions of this clause and shall indicate the grounds for the School's concern about personal leave taken by the employee. The School shall invite the employee to respond verbally at the meeting to the issues raised by the School. An employee shall not unreasonably fail to attend such a meeting where invited so to do by the School.
 - (ii) After consideration of the employee's response, the School may
 - a. require further evidence of illness, the effect of the condition on the employee's capacity to perform their usual work or any work safely and a prognosis for recovery including relevant timeframes for a full return to work; and/or
 - b. require the employee to provide a medical certificate from a medical practitioner nominated by the School (at the School's cost in relation to any net amount payable by the employee) in relation to the likely period of absence or to establish only eligibility for personal leave (and no other information); and/or
 - c. discuss with the employee any other action.
 - (iii) Where an employee fails to attend a meeting as requested by the School pursuant to paragraph (i) of this sub-clause and does not provide a reasonable explanation for such failure, or does not provide further evidence of illness as outlined in paragraph (ii) of this sub-clause, then the School may cease payment of personal leave if the School has reasonable grounds for a belief that the employee is not entitled to personal leave for that absence.

- (iv) The employee may, if a member of the union, request that any matter pursuant to this clause be discussed at any stage between the union and the representative of the School.
- (e) Where an employee seeks to return to work after an absence of four or more weeks, a school may require the employee, prior to commencing duties:
 - (i) to provide additional information regarding the employee's capacity for work and fitness to perform work safely, from the employee's treating health practitioners (at the School's cost in relation to any net amount payable by the employee). This information including, but not limited to:
 - a. confirmation that the employee can fully undertake their usual work or any work within their capabilities and experience safely, or
 - b. the effect of the condition on the employee's capacity to perform their usual work or any work within their capabilities and experience safely (including any limitations or medically imposed restrictions); and
 - c. the treating health practitioner's prognosis, if applicable, for recovery including relevant timeframes for a full return to work.
 - (ii) to attend a medical examination with a health practitioner nominated by the School (at the School's cost in relation to any net amount payable by the employee) to report on and inform it of the matters set out in subclause 33.4(e)(i). The employee must give the treating health practitioner(s) and/or examining health practitioner any consent required to enable the provision of such information to the School. Where attendance at such an examination delays the return to work of an employee who has previously provided confirmation that the employee can fully undertake their usual work, additional paid leave (not deducted from personal leave) shall be provided by the school for the period of the delay except and to the extent that the conduct of the Employee has unreasonably contributed to the delay.
 - (iii) A school will provide at least two weeks' notice, or such shorter period as may be agreed, of its intention to require information or attendance at an examination under this sub-clause 33.4(e).

33.5 General Requirements for Personal Leave

- (a) Employees shall not be entitled to paid leave of absence for any period in respect of which the employee is entitled to payment under the Workers Compensation Act 1951 (ACT).
- (b) An employee shall not be entitled to Personal Leave unless he or she notifies the Principal of the school (or such other person deputised by the Principal), prior to the commencement of the first organised activity at the school on any day, or otherwise as soon as practicable, of the need for Personal Leave and of the estimated duration of the absence (or if unable to do so took all reasonable steps to notify the Principal or was unable to take such steps).
- (c) For the purposes of this clause, 'day' means the number of hours which the employee would have worked on that day if not absent.

- (d) The personal leave entitlement of a part-time employee shall be in that proportion which the average number of hours worked by the employee in a week bears to 38. When the number of hours worked by a part-time employee varies, the personal leave entitlement of the employee shall be calculated and credited to the employee in hours at the time of such variation.

33.6 Compassionate leave entitlement

An Employee is entitled to two days paid compassionate leave per occasion in accordance with the Act and subject to the requirements of the Act and NES. An additional day of paid leave will be applicable in the case of bereavement.

33.7 Unpaid Leave for Casual Staff

Subject to the requirements of the Act and NES casual staff may have access to unpaid Carer's Leave or Unpaid Compassionate Leave.

34. Parental leave

This clause of the Agreement provides agreement specific details and supplements the NES which deals with parental leave.

For the purposes of this clause:

"PPL Scheme" means the Paid Parental Leave Scheme established under the Paid Parental Leave Act 2010 (Cth),

34.1 General

An employee is entitled to take unpaid parental leave in accordance with the provisions of the Act and subject to the limitations and conditions, including notification requirements, contained in that Act. Without limiting the operation of this clause, an employee must have 12 months continuous service to be eligible for parental leave under the Act.

 - (iii) the employee has given a firm indication as to their intention regarding their return, or otherwise, to work at the conclusion of the paid leave.
- (b) The amount of the paid leave for an employee who takes leave under this sub-clause shall be fourteen weeks or such lesser period as is equal to the period of parental leave taken by the employee. For the avoidance of doubt this payment shall be in addition to the amount, if any, an employee receives under the PPL scheme.

- (c) The period of paid leave shall be inclusive of non-term periods falling within the 14 weeks.
- (d) Paid parental leave pursuant to this Clause 34.2 shall commence no earlier than one term prior to the expected date of birth.
- (e) The school may deduct payment for any absence of the employee (to which the employee, but for this clause, would have been entitled under Clause 24.1 to sick leave) in the period of four calendar weeks prior to the expected date of birth from the payment of paid parental leave to which the employee is entitled pursuant to the clause.
- (f) Where an employee becomes entitled to a further period of unpaid parental leave under the Act and has not returned to work for a period of two school terms, or such lesser period as may be agreed to by the school, following a period of parental leave, the employee will not be entitled to paid parental leave. However, the employee will remain entitled to unpaid parental leave in accordance with the Act.

 - (iv) as otherwise agreed in writing with the school.
- (i) The employer must pay the first or lump sum payments at the pay period commencing closest to;
 - (i) six weeks before the anticipated date of birth, or
 - (ii) if birth occurs before the time referred to in (i), the date of the birth; or
 - (iii) if the employee has not commenced paid parental leave at the time referred to in (i), when the employee commences leave.

B.1 Definitions

B.1.1 Definition 1: Supervision

Close supervision: clear and detailed instructions are provided. Tasks are covered by standard procedures. Deviations from procedures or unfamiliar situations are referred to higher levels. Work is regularly checked.

Routine supervision: direction is provided on the tasks to be undertaken with some latitude to rearrange sequences and discriminate between established methods. Guidance on the approach to standard circumstances is provided in procedures, guidance on the approach to non-standard circumstances is provided by a supervisor. Checking is selective rather than constant.

General direction: direction is provided on the assignments to be undertaken, with the employee determining the appropriate use of established methods, tasks and sequences. There is some scope to determine an approach in the absence of established procedures or detailed instructions, but guidance is readily available. When performance is checked, it is on assignment completion.

Broad direction: direction is provided in terms of objectives which may require the planning of staff, time and material resources for their completion. Limited detailed guidance will be available and the development or modification of procedures by the employee may be required. Performance will be measured against objectives.
